

Content of a paper for P&M:

- Data should not be from a cross-sectional single study.

Authors should either make it a mixed method or conduct another study in other time (this will allow comparisons of results at different points in time).

- Focus should not be on intention only, behavioral issues are welcome.
- References. They should have the format for the journal.